

Regional Networks

Not just another meeting! Network with other mediators and conflict resolution folks in your corner of New Hampshire. Regional networking groups are happening in Keene, Nashua and Portsmouth. Each group is likely to be different, based on the interests and needs of those who participate. If you are interested, contact the coordinator listed below.

Looking for a group in your area? It would be nice to connect more often with other conflict resolution enthusiasts, wouldn't it? If you are interested, contact Valerie Raudonis to talk about starting a group or reaching out to others who might like to start a group – if only they knew that you would be there, too!

Lebanon? North Country folk? Plymouth? Laconia? Concord?

Come together – see what happens!
